Mt. Comfort To Observe "Heritage Sunday"

Mt. Comfort United Methodist Church will be observing "Heritage Sunday" on Sunday, May 22nd, with worship services beginning at 11:00 a.m. Mt. Comfort is among the oldest organized churches in the county with records dating back to the early 1800's.

During the morning services the church early history will be reviewed by Mr. Otho W. Martin, Jr., giving excerpts from the diary of Bishop John Early who was Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church South and recorded for a period dating from May 24, 1807 to June 8, 1814. Hunt Hamilton will read the earliest found membership roll of 1850, when the church was located near the historical home known as Mt. comfort, and located on the old Oakville road leading from the old Appomattox Court House. the first roll recorded after moving to the new location where the present building now stands, was dated 1876, and will be read by Dennis Drinkard. All relatives of these former members present, will be asked to stand on roll call of these early members and leaders of Mt. Comfort. The morning message will be given by Lloyd G. Walton, a grandson ot one ot the former members of 1876.

Picnic Lunch will be served in the church pavilion at noon, with the evening program following at 2:00 p.m. A service of "Worship in Song" will be presented in the evening by the Palestine Quartet of Lynchburg.

All friends, former members, and members are invited to come and share the blessings of this day, which has become a rich spiritual experience for the people of Mt. Comfort.

Daniel Players Awards Announced

The third annual Daniel Players Award Night was held at the Royal Garden Restaurant in Farmville, Friday, May 13th. It is a measure of the growth of this community drama group, sponsored by the John H. Daniel Campus of SVCC, that 53 Daniel Players attended.

President Donna Emmerson presented the awards for the best performances of the year. Selections were made by an anonymous committee who had attended all five plays during the past twelve months.

Mark Dolan from Madisonville received the Technical Award for the excellent backstage work.

Best Supporting Actress Award went to Dian Simonini, sometime resident of Farmville for her "Bloody" Mary in "South Pacific".

Rick Vaughan was given Best Supporting Actor Award for his acting and singing as Mr. Snow in the Daniel Player's "Carousel" last fall.

The Best Actress Award was bestowed on Mary T. Vaughan of Burkeville for her moving performance as the wife in "Death of a Salesman".

The Best Actor Award was conferred to Dr. Hassel Simpson of Hampden-Sydney for his Elwood P. Dowd in last summer's "Harvey".

The President's award, given annually to the Daniel Player member who makes the most telling overall contribution to the drama group, went to Henry Emmerson of Drakes Branch.

The Players also announced the selection of summer plays. They will be the Neil Simon comedy, "Last of the Red Hot Lovers" and the musical, "Oliver". The two plays will comprise a four week run in July and August, marking the first Daniel Player's venture in a repertory season. Auditions for both shows will be announced shortly.

Mr. Alvin Ferguson of Appomattox has been a most active member of the Daniel Players, and has served on the Board of Directors.

Local Piano Students To Play In National Piano Playing Auditions

Thirty-six local piano pupils from the Class of Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan's Allegro Music Studio in Spout Spring have registered as candidates for membership in the National Fraternity of Student Musicians, sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers, Teacher Division of The American College of Musicians, of which their teacher is a member. This group of young piano hobbyists will play in the National Piano Playing Auditions in Lynchburg section and strive for National or International Sonatina honors which the Mother organization confer according to the number of standard classic, romantic, and modern pieces chosen from the Masters of piano-forte literature each student can creditably perform in the presence of an imported examiner of note from another state. They will each perform musicianslip phases playing chords, inversions, cadences, arpeggios in the major and minor keys as well as transposition, improvisation, & sight reading.

From coast to coast over 80,000 enthusiastic piano pupils of the nation will participate in this annual national piano-playing event being held in 700 music centers of the country and every entrant worth his salt will be certified, given a gold or bronze embossed pin, a year's Membership in the National Fraternity of Student Musicians and Piano Hobbyists of the World.

The names of the local entrants, pupils of Mrs. Vaughan, are:

Alice Angel, Anne Angel, Carole Beaty, James Beaty, Jennifer Brown, Cheryl Chesham, Beverly Coleman, Cheryl Comer, Melinda Davis, Donna Dickerson, Rhonda Gail Doss, Scott Drinkard, Bobby Hart, Sandy Jamerson, Maria King, Paula Lea, Kathy Lewis, Laura Magann, Kim Maxwell, Gail Moore, Susan Morris, Lisa Puckett, Darrell Puckett, Leslie Ranson, Suzette Ranson, Amy Roberts, Lisa Roberts, Donna Robinson, Kinckle Robinson, Linda St. John, Faith Vaughn, Teresa Warner, Renee Wells, Renee Williams and Merry Wright.

Each of the above students will perform 10 to 15 compositions from memory.

There is nothing quite as satisfying as a good "standing" crop.

But a destructive hailstorm can ruin that crop in seconds. High winds can severely damage a dwelling, barn, or other building. Lightning loss is a big concern at this time of year.
